

The Recovery Month Web Event Season Continues With:

"Helping Families Find Recovery"

Premieres Wednesday, May 2, 2007

The entire family is affected by an individual's addiction.

Join Ivette Torres, Associate Director for Consumer Affairs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) and a panel of experts to find out how families can be involved in the treatment of an individual with addiction. This show will examine how foster care programs, family drug courts, mutual support groups, community-based organizations, and other services are helping families walk the road to recovery together. It also highlights treatment options available to family members of an individual with addiction and discusses the extent that stigma affects family members of an individual with a substance use disorder.

Panelists include:

- Denis Brien, Executive Director of Jude House
- Yvonne D. Brock, MA, CAC-AD, ICADC, CCDP, Director of Chemical Dependency Programs at Potomac Ridge Behavioral Health System
- Kathryn Icenhower, Ph.D, LCSW, Executive Director of SHIELDS for Families
- Carol B. Sisco, Ph.D., licensed clinical social worker and managing partner of Sisco Associates in Washington, DC

The Webcast will be archived for viewing at <http://www.recoverymonth.gov/2007-multimedia> section.
